Lottery Ticket Rules

Ericsson Site Linköping sponsor some cultural activities for their employees each year. As part of this they have an agreement with KKEl that helps distribute these tickets to the employees via a lottery.

1 Rules for participation in the Lottery

- Only Ericsson permanent employees with home location at site Linköping and an active Ericsson mail account can participate.
- Only one lottery ticket per person at each draw. If more than one ticket is posted, all of them will be removed from lottery.
- Each winner will get 2 tickets (exception can occur which in those cases will clearly be stated in email about lottery)
- If you have won tickets but are unable to attend the show that date, you can:
 - Contact the lottery responsible to see if there are others wanting the ticket. If done in reasonable time, you will not get down prioritized in future lotteries.
 - Give the tickets to a colleague within Ericsson
 - Contact the event organizer and see if you can change date for your specific ticket
 - If all of the above fails you can give the tickets to anyone, but please make sure they are used and not wasted!
- Persons who have won at earlier draws the current season will get down prioritized in future draws that same season.
- It is not allowed to "participate for someone else".

2 To Participate

- A mail about possibility to participate in lottery will be sent out to all Ericsson Linköping employees (using mail list Region Linköping Employees (EAB)) approximately 2 weeks in advance.
- Persons that want to participate in the lottery should follow instructions in email and send a mail back according to instructions before a certain date. This mail can be empty – it is the "from" field that must be an Ericsson email address and will be used as the contact info.
- The draw is done by a KKEl person via a random number calculator which points out a row in the mail list which will be the winner.

- Winners will be informed via email and all winners are also published on the Konst- och Kulturföreningen's \(KKEL\) homepage.
- Unless otherwise agreed, tickets will be possible to pick up from reception desk. A winner that does not pick up the tickets from reception desk will be excluded from other lotteries during that season.

"Season" in the text above, is a time period starting in August one year and runs to June the next year.
